

The brand new Award that was missing: “70 Best Restaurants with Pizzeria in the World”

The very first awarding of the Prize dedicated to the 70 Best Restaurants in the world that promote the whole of Italian gastronomy: cuisine as well as pizza.

The first edition of the Italian Style Prize “The 70 Best Restaurants with a Pizzeria in the World”, a project conceived and curated by Ristorazione Italiana Magazine, the most important network for professionals in the sector took place on Thursday, the 28th of June. The event has been held in the prestigious Terrazza degli Aranci – La Pergola Restaurant - headed by the three Michelin-starred Chef Heinz Beck.

This original initiative rewards those restaurateurs in the world who promote the whole set of Italian gastronomy: cuisine and pizza. A winning combination that Ristorazione Italiana Magazine, for the first time ever, is celebrating with an exclusive international Award.

The aim of the project is to highlight the ceaseless and passionate work of all those restaurateurs who are committed to making Italian Cuisine with its typical dishes and Pizzas, the most beloved dish, as well as the excellences of Made in Italy in the restaurant sector known to the public.

After those guides and initiatives dedicated either to restaurants or to pizzerias, it was time to fill this gap and promote this winning combination. The restaurants with a pizzeria represent half of all establishments in the traditional restaurant sector.

The editorial staff of Ristorazione Italiana Magazine, together with Italian Style, the special edition in English, after more than two years of work, in collaboration with the finest Italian food magazines at an international level, experts in the sector, food and wine journalists, food bloggers and some overseas offices of the Italian Trade Agency, has selected the 70 best Restaurants with Pizzerias coming from 34 countries throughout the world.

From New York to Tokyo, from Dubai to Oslo and of course from Italy, the selected restaurants have been the absolute protagonists of the gala evening, presented by the well-known host and presenter Fabrizio Nonis, in the exclusive setting of the Terrazza degli Aranci - Ristorante La Pergola in Rome. Accompanied by the delicacies created by the three Michelin-starred Chef Heinz Beck, the restaurateurs have received the exclusive “70 Best Restaurants with a Pizzeria in the World” Award and have been included in the prestigious dedicated guide with the history and peculiarities of their restaurants.
